WE TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY OF ACKNOWLEDGING OUR SINCERE THANKS AND APPRECIATION FOR THE INTEREST AND PARTICIPATION, DISPLAYED BY HUNDREDS, IN THE RECENTLY CONDUCTED "NEW NAME" AND "BEST LETTERS" CONTEST.

We also take pleasure in publishing the pictures and comments of the successful prize winners

THE WINNERS and THEIR COMMENTS

MISS EILEEN MITCHELL

1774 Stanley Ave.

LONG BEACH, CALIF.

Winner of $50 Prize for New Name

Miss Mitchell, who is a student of Junior High School in Long Beach, in her acknowledgment as the successful winner of $50 stated that she was going to start a SAVINGS ACCOUNT with this money. Such spirit is admirable and we wish her success. A copy of her letter is published in this newspaper today.

MAYFAIR CREAMERY,
By EARL R. BRUNNER.

Mrs. Oscar E. Olson
Lomita, Calif.

1st Prize Winner

Mrs. Olson says in part:

"Men who conduct creameries are largely responsible for the health of the community they serve. In their power lies the fate of providing nutritious milk to precious babies, helping youth to grow and sustaining old age. This is a tremendous responsibility."

3 Best Letter Winners

Due to her absence from the county we are unable to publish the picture of

Hazel L. Watkins

Los Angeles, Calif.

3rd Prize Winner

Miss Watkins says in part:

"The creamery managed by a practical dairy man. The creamery to be all shiny white... well ventilated... lighted and sanitary."
"The Creamery to be equipped with modern machinery for washing and sterilizing of containers. The product delivered punctually in time for breakfast."

Mrs. Lillian M. Rous
Torrance, Calif.

2nd Prize Winner

Mrs. Rous says in part:

"Spotless rooms... sterilized containers... sunlit and well ventilated surroundings... Neatly attired and courteous drivers... clean trucks... all these things help to create confidence in a product and are my chief ideas of what I would like my creamery to be."

"The 'Mayfair' Fulfills These High Ideals!"

MRS. SMITH WINS PRIZE ON DISPLAY

Garden Club Holds Contest Among Members — Nine Awards Are Made

"Dahlias and Delphiniums" was the subject chosen by A. G. Goodacre of Gardena at the meeting of the Torrance District Garden club last Monday evening.

Mr. Goodacre is a dahlia grower and gave a most interesting talk, giving the story of dahlias from the seed to the producing. He spoke on the care that should be given the tubers, and also told about raising the flowers from the seed.

Displays of bulbous and other flowers brought by club members transformed the Legion clubhouse into a flower garden. Three long tables were filled with displays entered in the exhibit.

A large basket of beautiful red amaryllis blossoms, exhibited by Mrs. R. R. Smith, was awarded the grand prize, a Golden Emblem rosebush donated by the King Nursery. The prize was awarded as the result of popular vote.

Nine ribbons were awarded winners in the various classes. They were:

1. Ranunculus, Mrs. Lottie Fix.
2. Anemone, No entries.
3. Freesias, Mrs. J. T. Price of Lomita.
4. Lisias, Mrs. J. T. Price of Lomita.
5. Tulips, Mrs. Charles Vonderah.
6. Calla lilies, Lars Olson of Lomita.
7. Iris, H. C. Rocque of Keystone.
8. Any other bulbous flower, Mrs. R. R. Smith.
9. Sweet peas, Mrs. L. H. Cheadle.

Some very lovely flowers were exhibited that were not eligible for prizes under the classifications. Among these were two lovely baskets displayed by Mr. Olson of Lomita, who showed a basket of roses, and a very large basket of delphiniums, snapdragons and wasonias.

Announcement was made to the effect that the Pasadena Horticultural Association show is now on at Pasadena and is open from April 18 to 19 inclusive.

"Riding Comfort"

FOR THE ADDED MILES

The new Dual-Balloon completely reverses the tendency of today toward high-pressure or moderate-pressure in tires. It adds to General's already famous mileage without compromising, in the least, the comforts of low-pressure operation.

It means among many other advantages... protection for the car investment, too... A very noticeable saving in upkeep cost.
